Boiling Springs Campmeeting embraces next Sunday. We hear of many going from here.

It is a little remarkable that out of the many bills given the Grand Jury but one "no bill" was found.

A runaway occurred at the depot last week in which there was a considerable spilling of specie.

The merchants have agreed to close their stores on Tuesday next, giving their clerks a chance to attend the Democratic Mass Meeting.

Mr. John Reeves, brother of Dr. S. A. Reeves, had his collar bone broken on last Saturday night by falling off the platform at the Depot.

The business of every Democrat on next Tuesday should be to don a red shirt and Hurrah for Hargood and Hancock.

Why can't we have a meeting of the local Democracy? Will President Slater consider the matter and give us one if possible?

The farmers will please remember that stores will be closed next Tuesday and not come to town expecting to transact business on that day.

After the second of next November we will have a County, State and National Democratic government, with peace, economy and prosperity.

Mrs. Livingston and Georgie Zeigler, who were reported sick last week are slowly mending. We regret to add that Mrs. Malone is still very ill.

Mr. Willock has just received a large and fine stock of wood and willow ware which he is offering low down.

The Rowesville Democratic Club is ordered to meet at New Hope to-morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. A full attendance is required.

A protracted meeting has been going on at Ebenezer Church in the F.O.L. with good results. Last Sunday eight converts were added to the Church.

The family of Dr. A. R. Taber have moved into our Burg occupying the residence formerly occupied by Mrs. Palmer. We welcome them in our midst.

P. Gerlach who is said to be distributing Republican campaign documents we suppose must find it more profitable than building Democratic houses. Every man to his opinion.

George Boliver had better not spend too much of his cash on the Clerk's office. For if by any "hook or crook" he should get in we will starve him out before winter sets in.

The farmers of Caw Caw Township are requested to meet at the residence of Mr. W. M. Gafney on Saturday morning at 10 o'clock on the 16th Oct next.

Says Webby to Georgie, what think you of Maine? Says Georgie in his sternness, I think it's a d—n shame.

Says Webby, by Georgie, I wanted to shout. But if such foolery goes on, we are gone up the spout.

The Radicals of our County seem to be at a loss for material in their own party, and will, no doubt, try and induce disappointed Democrats to run on their ticket. Who will do it?

Mr. H. Spahr, watchmaker and jeweler, has arrived, and he found opposite Mr. Cornelson's. As to his reliability, he refers by permission to Messrs. Henry and Theodore Kohn. See advertisement.

We have been requested by the managers of the County Fair to state that there will be no exhibition this year, it being deemed advisable in view of the excitement of the election and for other reason to make the postponement this time.

John Lee Coleman Beattie and James Williams, three staunch colored Democratic speakers after doing excellent work in our County, went to Columbia last Saturday morning for the purpose of working in other sections of the State.

Mr. C. P. Dawson still continues to ship wool to factories for farmers. He has given entire satisfaction to all. He has a lot of new samples on hand and those wishing to exchange their wool for cloth would do well to call on him early.

We regret to learn of the death in Charleston last week of Mr. James Wilson, who spent a part of the summer in our town as the guest of Hon. T. W. Glover. He made an impression in his intercourse with our citizens which will be long and favorably remembered.

The Zion Township Democratic Club is requested to meet at the Fines of the Cannon Bridge and Ninety-Six roads on Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock Oct 12th 1880, with ad shirts and well mounded, for the purpose of attending the State Campaign for the County on that day.

A policeman is needed at the depot for the protection of ladies, while waiting for the trains against the harsh, gross and grating conversation of a parcel of suble rowdies, who especially in the evenings, seem to delight in this pastime. The depot is a public place, and Council ought to endeavor to remedy the evil.

We are glad to see that the article in the Times on the growth and prosperity of Orangeburg has been reproduced in the "News and Courier." While its circulation in the Times would reach a larger number of readers in the County than in any paper, the "News and Courier" carries it to outsiders, among whom its publication will do the most good to our people.

Mr. Jas. Van Tassel has increased his stock of groceries to such an extent that he has been compelled to move the bar to another part of the building. He carries his grocery and liquor business well kept, entirely separate and distinct. Both departments are crammed jammed full of choice fresh goods which are being sold low down. Give him a call and get bargains.

Mr. Danner is now opening his large and varied stock of new goods in the Way building, comprising ladies dress goods, clothing, hats, boots and shoes, groceries, &c. Among the last named articles you will find pickled beef and mutton, the very finest quality. These goods have been marked down to the very lowest figure, therefore it will pay to call on Mr. D. and examine his goods and prices.

A colored Democrat of this County ordered to donate a good make good (it) to two acres of his land for the purpose of erecting a church and school house upon for his colored brethren, provided no political gatherings should ever be held upon the lot. The offer was indignantly refused under the proviso. The trustees are Republicans. This accounts for much of the religious (?) enthusiasm of this race just before election time. We say let them hold as many meetings as they choose, but we decline against making religion a cloak for political purposes.

In a conversation a few days since, between a prominent Democrat and a Republican as to who would be the next President, &c., they could not agree, but they did agree that for cheap and reliable goods C. D. Kortjohn could beat the town, especially in homespun, calicos, hats, shirts of all kinds, shoes, socks and stockings, looking glasses, handkerchiefs, blankets, flannels, notions, &c. A Greenbacker then stepped up and said Dick Kortjohn was a trump, and all who called on him would be surprised at his low prices, especially country merchants. Give him a trial.

The ladies of Orangeburg are respectfully invited to meet the Committee on Decoration at Engine Hall this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Thanks again for a beautiful bouquet from a fair young reader of the Times in the Fork. It is a pleasing thought that our pathway is not altogether without flowers.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Young America F. E. Co., held Oct. 6th, 1880, the following resolutions of thanks were unanimously adopted:

Resolved That the thanks of this Company be tendered to Mrs. E. S. Hubbell, Mrs. D. Louis and Messrs. D. E. Smoak and H. R. Alden for refreshments kindly furnished on the night of the 24th of Sept., and to Dr. S. A. Reeves for a like kindness on the night of the 1st Oct.

An alarm of fire was sounded on last Friday night, and in a short time our citizens, the steamer, the Elliotts and the colored fire companies were all on the alert. It was soon found that the cause of the alarm was at Dr. S. A. Reeves' residence, where some burning rags were found, and it was supposed that the roof was on fire. The engine was promptly on the spot and played off splendidly. A fire would have been dangerous in this locality, and it is fortunate that it has turned out as it is.

A grand concert and reading is soon to take place at Way's new Hall on Russell Street in aid of the Episcopal Sunday School Library. Preparations are in progress under a committee of gentlemen consisting of Prof. LaRoche, Messrs. Fowles, Bull and Lanes. We are assured that under this management the public may expect a rare treat. Besides the Edisto Band a quintette of select male voices will discourse sweet music. The public will be gratified to learn that Prof. Lawrence and Mr. Henry Kohn will assist in this entertainment. Full programme next week.

It is with more than ordinary pain that we pause to chronicle the death, on Wednesday, of Mrs. A. C. Dibble, in our town. It is always sad to speak of death, but it is especially so when the victim is one who is taken away in the very meridian of life, in the midst of the work which Providence has allotted, surrounded by so much which seems to call for a longer stay, and having so many tender ties to break so suddenly and so solemnly. Mrs. Dibble has been in ill health for a number of years and had only removed with her husband, about a year ago, from Hamburg to Orangeburg to be nearer relatives, and if possible, to gain the advantage of a change of air. But the will of Providence must be accomplished and with none was this will more cheerfully acquiesced in than the tender subject of this notice. With her delicate frame shattered from protracted illness her gentleness of disposition, her meekness and suffering her unflinching faith and her ever present christian hopes so gladdened and cheered home, that much of the gloom of the tomb was dispelled by the sunshine of her life. Her funeral services were performed before a large concourse of friends at the Methodist Church on Tuesday, by Rev. Monzon. She leaves a husband and two little children who have our heartfelt sympathies.

Court convened last Monday. Judge W. H. Wallace presiding.

Root them out—Worms are often caused by liver complaint. The nausous or slime which forms in ill health is where the worms produce their young. If nature is assisted to carry off this mucus the worms find no resting place. For children and adults Dr. Flagg's Improved Liver and stomach pad is the only sure cure and preventative. No medicine is used.

The health and beauty of children can be restored by giving them Shiner's Indian Vermifuge to kill the worms that darken their complexion.

One of the most useful and comfortable articles for our people to use is the inside sole or foot protector, composed of wool and cork, worn in the boot or shoe. It is a sure remedy for rheumatism and proof against cold and damp feet. For sale by P. A. Leivendahl at 25 cts per pair.
